

First Information Report (FIR)

Date of Incident: 2025-01-10

Place of Incident: Mysuru

Complainant Name: Ramesh

Address: Mysuru

To,

The Officer-in-Charge of Police Station,

Mysuru

Subject: First Information Report (FIR) for theft of property

Respected Sir/Madam,

I, Ramesh, hereby submit this First Information Report (FIR) regarding the theft of my phone that occurred at a bus stop on 10th January 2025. I request you to take necessary action against the culprit and ensure justice is served.

Incident Details:

On the above date and time, I was waiting at a bus stop near my residence in Mysuru when I noticed a person wearing a black shirt and blue jeans, with his face covered with a mask, trying to snatch something from someone else. I could partially notice the thief's clothes and appearance as follows:

- * Black shirt
- * Blue jeans
- * Mask covering his face (lean)

I immediately informed the police about the incident, but unfortunately, they did not arrive in time to catch the thief. I have provided a detailed description of the culprit to help identify him and bring him to justice.

Reasons for Filing FIR:

As per Section 154 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, it is mandatory to record every information relating to the commission of a cognizable offence in writing and enter it in a book kept for this purpose. I hereby submit this FIR to fulfill this legal requirement and to ensure that the perpetrator is brought to justice.

I hope you will take prompt action on this report and apprehend the thief as soon as possible. Please inform me about any progress or updates in this matter.

Thank you for your attention.

Sincerely,
Ramesh

---

Note: The above FIR is a fictional example and should not be used as a legal document without proper authentication and evidence. It is important to follow the correct legal procedures and format when filing an FIR to ensure its validity and admissibility in court.